Your Monthly News & Updates

Learn how to recognize the effects of depression on the brain at this month's Lunch & Learn webinar. Plus, get a discount on your A4M World Congress registration.

Continuing Education.

Do you know how depression changes the brain?

This webinar will strengthen your understanding of electrophysiology metrics and teach you how to recognize key biomarkers of depression.

Over the 30-45 minute webinar, Evoke co-founder and CEO David Hagedorn, PhD, will review:

- How to interpret functional physiology metrics
- Biomarkers sensitive to affect disorders, and the research supporting them
- How to recognize changes in the brain caused by depression
